When They Met...

- When and how is uncertain. Likely possibilities:
  - Aryeh Neier, President of the OSI, co-founded the SDS. Bill Ayers, Bernardine Dohrn, and Wade Rathke (ACORN) were members of the SDS. Obama had a twenty-year relationship with Ayers and Dohrn, and a 17 year relationship with ACORN.

- Soros met with Obama in 2004 (the only personal meeting he had with a politician in 2004).
- At the time, Obama was one of thousands of state level legislators, and only 20% of the people in Illinois even knew who he was.
- Soros became known as Obama's "Money Man".
- Curiously, Obama and Soros's OSI collaborated to support an Islamic Marxist candidate for president of Kenya in 2007 in another attempt at "regime change".

Soros Picks a President

- On 12/4/2006, Obama met with Soros in Manhattan to discuss his presidential ambitions.
- At this point in time, Clinton was the front-runner by a mile, and Obama had just 143 working days of experience in the U.S. Senate
- Soros introduced Obama to a dozen wealthy backers, including UBS's Robert Wolf and Progressive Insurance's Peter Lewis.
- On 1/16/2007, Obama announced an exploratory committee for the presidency.
- On 1/19/2007, Soros announced he was now backing Barack Obama rather than Hillary Clinton.
- Soros: "I have very high regard for Hillary Clinton, but I think Obama has the charisma and the vision to radically reorient America in the world."
